In a busy place like Hong Kong, extra help around the home is always welcome. For many, employing domestic helpers is a sure way to keep everything running smoothly. Whether assisting with the cleaning, taking the kids to school, looking after grandma or cooking nutritious meals, domestic helpers are often the backbone of family life in our city.

MSIG's Domestic Helper Insurance provides three levels of coverage to meet your financial needs, as well as enhanced benefits for clinical, surgical and hospitalisation expenses. Give yourself and your domestic helper the confidence to cope with life's uncertainties during employment.

Comprehensive coverage:

Protection includes clinical, surgical and hospitalisation, service interruption, dental, personal accident, repatriation, fidelity guarantee, medical protection for family abuse, personal effect/money, and liability

Three plan options:

Scenario 1

Recently, Ms Leung's father passed away so she decides to rehouse her mother with her own family. To help her cope, Ms Leung hires a local domestic helper from Hong Kong, called Coco, who works at the household for a few hours per day. Ms Leung takes out MSIG's Domestic Helper Insurance, and opts for the Essential Plan.

During the course of her duties, Coco unexpectedly falls and breaks her wrist. She is taken to hospital where she undergoes surgery on her broken arm, and is required to stay for 2 days. How does Essential Plan cover Ms Leung?

Dorothy notices a strange spot growth on her leg and seeks medical advice. After conducting a biopsy, Dorothy's doctor confirms she has stage 1 malignant melanoma skin cancer and requires surgery. She stays in the hospital for 5 days and possibly needs further treatment. How does Enhanced Plan cover Mr Chow?
